Fred Comes To the Assistance of The Black Cat Editor

Dear Black Cat Editor:—
As an interested reader of your excellent column I was intrigued by the item about the robins that nested in the schooner at Searsport, but are we really supposed to believe that those fledglings flew away two days after they were hatched? Of course, the parent birds may have been so appreciative of the courtesy shown them in the delay of the launching that they ordered the youngsters to "step on it" and get out of the way. Probably that is the explanation.

Also, the bit about the hay and the full meal calls to mind some laughable signs. At North Scituate, Mass., where there is a fine summer colony, a few years ago a sign was nailed to a tree which read: Perez B. Young, trains made to order. Perez in explanation, ran an automobile stage between the beach and North Scituate depot.

In the South Boston district of Boston, down toward City Point and its myriad of yachts, there used to be a storekeeper on a side street who included in his business the provisioning of yachts. His place was unpretentious and hard to find but he attracted attention by a unique sign on which was printed, All sorts of provisions. Ice cream, banjos and fish.

How many Black Cat readers recall names of business men that fit into their different businesses? I remember years ago, at the foot of the westerly hill in Waldoboro village, an undertaker's sign that carried the name Deymore. Singularly appropriate.

We have, in Greater Boston, a tailor named I. Sheer. Let's have some others.

He Sold Himself

"Buyers" of Dr. Wilson Were Delighted Members of Rockland Lions Club

The days of slavery have passed, thank Heaven, but a man was sold in this city yesterday. The man was Rev. Dr. Guy Wilson, the new Methodist pastor; the place was the Lions Club meeting in The Thorndike Grill, and the incident in question was the "selling" of the speaker to each and every one of the persons present. So complete was the pastor's capture of his audience that an immediate motion was made to secure an option on him for an early return date.

The speaker, who was aptly and wittily introduced by Ensign Otis, chairman of the June entertainment committee, chose as his subject "Selling Personality." It was the story of "the good methods of a bad man"—the story of Absalom. The fact that a man is in bad business is no proof that he is not using good methods. Men don't make much progress with a thing if they are not enthusiastic about that thing. Absalom contacted the people. He didn't give them absent treatment but went actually and rubbed elbows. There is no substitute for contacting an individual. He has got to show interest in something that his listener is interested in.

Following a series of humorous anecdotes which brought hearty laughs, and behind those laughs was left the knowledge that the speaker had made an application which carried a valuable lesson.

He told the story of the campaigning politician who came across a woman who was selling socks. "How much do you ask?" the politician wanted to know.

"Fifteen cents," was the meek reply. "Fuh!" snorted the politician. "they're worth a dollar, and that's what you will be able to sell them for when I'm elected."

He told the story at the next rally, saying, "Perhaps that poor woman is in this audience today."

"She is," came a voice from the rear of the crowd. It developed that there were five in the family, and all of them voted for the politician when election day came.

He was elected, and had been in office only a short time when the price of stockings went down to 10 cents.

"You have got to kidnap the affections of the people," said Dr. Wilson. "Absalom stole the hearts of the men of Israel."

The nominating committee finding a change necessary in its plans, asked leave to postpone its report until next Wednesday.

Guests yesterday were Mayor Veazie, Charles D. Gould and Dr. Roberts of Tiffin, Ohio. Dr. Roberts added interestingly to the day's music offerings, by singing the solo in "Alouetta."

Expected That 5000 Buddies Will Be In American Legion Parade

Advance registration by delegates to their advantage, said Paul J. Julien, president of the American Legion convention corporation as it will insure their enjoyment of all of the events on the program of the three day session, June 24, 25 and 26, with a minimum cost to themselves.

These events include two dances Friday evening, and on the following evening, the Bugle and Drum Corps contest, admission to a mid-night show, featuring eight acts of Broadway vaudeville, a ball game between two Junior Legion teams and other features.

By special arrangement with Colby College several of the college buildings have been leased the Legion corporation for the convention and will be used by the housing committee to accommodate delegates. The women's buildings have been assigned to the Auxiliary, as their meetings will be held in the Alumnae Building, a few minutes walk from all houses in which delegates will stay.

Twenty-four hour maid and bell-boy service has been arranged for by the convention committee and the accommodations will provide the utmost comfort. At present there are accommodations for 3000 delegates, including the facilities of all of the local hotels and rooms provided in private families, which should be ample for the expected attendance.

Plans for the gigantic parade, scheduled for Sunday, the last day of the convention, are drawing to a close with an expected 5000 in the line of march. This will include about twenty bands, an equal number of bugle and drum corps, which will take part in the contest Sunday afternoon, and the military organizations, beside the delegates marching according to courtesies.

Californian Visiting In Rockland Tells of C. I. O. Troubles

C. C. Hughes, Jr. of California, who is spending a few days in this city with his wife, formerly Shirley Glidden, is a deputy sheriff out in Nevada County, and saw plenty of excitement when the C.I.O. organizers recently undertook to establish headquarters there. The story is told thus by his home paper, the Norristown (Penn.) Times Herald, after he had been interviewed there enroute for Rockland.

For 14 years C. C. Hughes, Jr., did not see Norristown, his native community. When he did decide to return, he did it in a hurry.

Sixty hours from California to Norristown by automobile is quite a feat. Mr. Hughes accomplished that feat when he drove the coast-to-coast distance to visit his father, Charles C. Hughes, Sr., 519 Haws avenue. He was accompanied by his wife.

The couple made only two stops enroute from the land of sunshine. The first stop was made in Omaha, Neb., and the second not until Bedford, Pennsylvania.

The California residents are visiting here until Saturday, when they will leave for Rockland, Maine, home of Mrs. Hughes.

Mr. Hughes recently played a prominent part in the widely publicized Nevada County gold mining case, in which C.I.O. representatives went into the sector and endeavored to organize the miners.

The native Norristonian is a deputy sheriff of Nevada County, California, and also a miner. He claims that throughout depression years Nevada County gold mining companies paid the biggest payrolls of any concerns in that sector. It has been known as the "White Spot of the West." It paid the highest wages of any gold mining camp in the world.

"Yet, the C.I.O. sent organizers into this territory," Hughes stated. "They tried every available means to force miners to terms, and the arguments finally resulted in bloodshed. Several members of the C.I.O. group went on strike and their group was augmented with the addition of outsiders who knew little or nothing about mining."

"Nevada County miners, farmers and other industrial men decided to band together. They chased the C.I.O. group out of the county. The latter put up a camp on the front lawn of the capital, and Governor Frank F. Merriam had his headquarters before they moved."

"They went back to Nevada County and for a time it looked as though there would be mob lynching. They again were chased and a few days later the C.I.O. brought a $1,000,000 suit against officials and many citizens of Nevada County."

Last week the $1,000,000 damage suit was dismissed by Federal Judge Michael J. Roche after Governor Merriam made public conflicting reports on the mine labor trouble which swept the county.

"I don't think they will come back, either," said Hughes. "There are 1400 vigilantes waiting with ropes in case they do. Nevada County, particularly the Grass Valley region, was one of the most peaceful and happy-go-lucky spots in the country before the labor intervention."

It's Safety Month

High Time That All Cars Have Been Inspected, Says Sgt. McCabe

The month of June has been proclaimed as "Highway Safety Month" in the State of Maine, because of the fact that too many people are killed every month by automobiles in this peaceful State. A certain month is set aside each year by the Governor, in order that the public and all agencies, both public and private, may concentrate their activities in order to aid in making Maine a safer state and assist in preventing motor vehicle accidents and fatalities.

The Police Departments and Sheriffs have been urged by the Highway Safety Division to lend their support in this worthwhile endeavor. The officers of the Maine State Police, under the competent direction of Major John W. Healy, have been commanded to pay particular attention to motor vehicles being driven without inspection stickers and those operating with faulty equipment. Particular attention will be paid to inadequate brakes, cars operating with poor headlights and their activities will be concentrated toward correcting headlight glare. The law requires that twice a year motor vehicle equipment shall be inspected by law.

This inspection takes place during the months of May and October. All automobiles driven in the State of Maine after midnight, May 31 are supposed to have thereon, an official inspection sticker.

In the past, many owners of cars have failed to have their vehicles inspected by June 1st. Police officers find that the same individuals neglect this duty every day. Facts reveal, in comparing the number of cars registered and the number of cars inspected, that the figures do not coincide. Discussing this situation one learns that there are more cars registered than inspected. In brief, there are people failing to have their cars inspected and are operating them with faulty equipment, jeopardizing that lives of people who do not wish to have an accident. There are citizens, both owners and operators of vehicles that do not know certain essential things are safe upon their cars and which may possibly cost them their lives if they are not corrected. Continued neglect on the part of these careless people may cost your life.

Defective motor vehicle equipment is involved in a great many of our fatal automobile accidents. In order to eliminate this cause of high accident frequency, newspapers have carried articles urging motorists to have their cars inspected by the June 1st deadline. Auto mechanics have labored unceasingly in an endeavor to correct this faulty equipment, and place cars upon our highways in a safe operating condition. It is now high time that all cars have been inspected. If automobiles are not inspected within the stated time, the owners and operators are subject to arrest and fine.

Therefore, enforcement agencies have been requested to concentrate their activities on this real road menace and prevent faulty equipment from causing accidents. With this idea in view, it is hoped that all sheriffs, local and State police will lend their wholehearted support in making June a real "Highway Safety Month" in Maine.

Sgt. Francis J. McCabe, director, Highway Safety Division, Maine State Police

YOUR FAVORITE POEM

If I had my life to live again I would have made a rule to read some poetry and listen to some music at least once a week. The loss of these tastes is a loss of happiness.—Charles Darwin.

GOD, THE ARTIST
God, when you thought of a pine tree,
How did you know the ecstasy
How did you dream of a damson West
Crossed by an ink bar?
How did you think of a clear brown pool
Where flocks of shadows are?

God, when you thought of a cowbird,
How did you think of dew?
How did you know the ecstasy
Had shingles, bright and new?
How did you know we human folk
Would love them as we do?

God, when you patterned a bird song,
Flung on a silver string,
How did you know the ecstasy
That crystal call would bring?
How did you think of a bubbling trout
And a darling speckled wing?

God, when you chiseled a raindrop,
How did you think of a stem
Bearing a lovely satin leaf
To hold the tiny gem?
How did you know a million drops
Would deck the morning's hem?

Why did you mate the moonlit night
With the honeyuckle vines?
How did you know Madeline bloom
Distilled ecstatic wines?

How did you weave the velvet dusk
Where tangled perfumes are?
God, when you thought of a pine tree,
How did you think of a star?

"The Black Cat"

By the Roving Reporter

Reference to the late Sergeant Major Stephen H. Chapman in the Memorial Day address recalled to Editor W. O. Fuller the patriotic mass meeting held in Farwell Hall in '61. "Who will volunteer?" asked the chairman. Instantly down the aisle came Rockland High School's principal Stephen H. Chapman. The first Rockland man to enlist and the first to be killed.

Among those who have been following with much interest the letters relating to the Maiden's Cliff tragedy is Mrs. Ella McMillan of Robinson street, who was an own cousin of the victim. On the day of the tragedy (May Day) it had been planned to hang May baskets, and Ella was on her way up the hill to meet Elenora French when a boy came running to tell her the sad news. Mrs. McMillan states there were 11 in the family to which Elenora French belonged, and that one of the sisters, Emma French, is still living at Lincolnville Beach.

The horse chestnut tree which has stood for so many years in front of the Verrill house on School street, now owned by Dr. H. J. Weisman, has undergone some beauty-parloring, which not only improved its appearance but that of the neighborhood. Schoolboys of several generations have filled their pockets with chestnuts which came from that tree.

Birds (not birdies) now go to church on the Knox golf links.

Two elderly men walked up through Main street Tuesday afternoon, and whatever they were saying to each other was evidently of a congenial nature. One of the men was John J. Wardwell, the eminent ex-shipbuilder, who was observing his 86th birthday. The other was Capt. Zenas Melvin, former shipmaster, who seemed to be giving fatherly advice on the strength of his 87 years. Two highly respected and well loved citizens.

"I certainly enjoy your paper," writes Miss Mae Stanley of Thomaston. "It has so many good things in it, The Black Cat column especially."

Willis I. Ayer was the first to heed my suggestion by putting out a bench in front of his store. He has never yet failed me. A. W. Gregory was runner-up.

The Black Cat has been tipped off to be on the lookout for Ked's Mouse circus next week. One would have to be in the vicinity of the corner of Main and Oak street to see what happens.

A colt was born this week to the mare Mary Montgomery, owned by Dr. E. W. Hodgkins of Thomaston. The sire was Dillon's Dream. Frank Butler, who has held the reins over many a race track here and heroine, officiated. It was quite an event in the life of "Mary Montgomery" who had reached the advanced age of 18 without having previously been a mother.

The culprit who painted Plymouth Rock red has been convicted. It didn't require much paint.

E. H. Philbrick wonders how many others, still living, were present in Farwell Opera House when the telegraphic returns of the Corbett-Fitzsimmons fight were given. He even remembers what the late Al. Crockett said.

Robins built a nest in the crotch of a cherry tree on the premises of ex-Mayor Albert C. McLean, Grove street this spring. Mr. and Mrs. McLean who are bird-lovers, were apprehensive of the many visits which squirrels paid in the vicinity of the nest, and their fears were apparently not groundless, for the other morning they heard a terrific racket and rushing outdoors saw a squirrel streaking across the lawn making a great outcry. Affixed to its back was a chattering robin with both claws fastened firmly into the squirrel's fur. They were soon lost to sight and sound, but it's a fair guess that the squirrel's visits to that particular tree have been discontinued.

Say ye to the righteous, that it shall be well with him. Isaiah 3: 10.

A Fine Edition

"Maine, the Land of Remembered Vacations" a Real Work of Art

A new edition of the State's leading booklet, "Maine, the Land of Remembered Vacations," is ready for distribution by the Maine Development Commission.

Hailed as one of the most striking examples of recreational literature ever published, the new booklet stresses the modern trend toward pictures by employing 115 halftones to portray the State's many advantages.

Many of the pictures are 9 x 7 inches and because of their beauty will be found suitable for framing.

The booklet is designed to present a general picture of Maine rather than a specific portrayal of its many recreational regions, this latter duty being attended to by supplementary booklets. Text in the new booklet has been kept to a minimum in favor of the new pictorial motif.

Another new departure is the grouping of pictures and text according to subject matter rather than having dissimilar material scattered haphazardly throughout the publication. Thus, the yachting enthusiast, to mention one, will find all pictures and text pertaining to his sport concentrated in one section.

Front and back covers are reproductions of natural color paintings.

Wednesday proved a red letter day in the annals of the First Baptist Mission Circle, when the members and guests gathered at the summer cottage of Mrs. Evelyn Hix at Crescent Beach for the annual outing. The interval before lunch was spent socially about the house and porch. Then came the picnic dinner, over which the ladies lingered happily. Followed the devotional service, led by the president, Mrs. Helen MacDonald, and then the crowning feature of the day, an account by Mrs. Hix of her trip through various European countries, interspersed with personal reminiscences and illustrated by many picture cards gathered during her journey—a delightful trip with none of the discomforts of actual travel. Several games, testing the wit and wisdom of the ladies, under the direction of Mrs. Clara Gregory, brought the program to a close. A beautiful day, amid delightful surroundings, and presided over by a gracious hostess served to make the event one to be long remembered by the large group present.

Four Maine girls will bear the most responsible positions of leadership at Colby College next year. One of these four girls is Donna de-Rochmont of this city, who has been elected president of the Colby Y.W.C.A. She has taken a leading part in religious activities at Colby ever since she entered, having held the office of secretary in her sophomore year, and vice president this past year. She attended the student Christian movement conference at Oxford, Ohio, last December, and recently participated in a boat trip to New York city as one of a part of newly elected Y. M. and Y. W. presidents from the New England colleges. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry de-Rochmont, 106 Pleasant street, and is a graduate of Rockland High School.

"Poppy Day," conducted Saturday by V.F.W. Auxiliary met with great success. Mrs. Helen Johnson chairman, was assisted by Mary Cotton, Arlene Townsend Josephine Grover, Ethel Prock, Phyllis Shaw, Barbara Parsons, Ruth Townsend, Jeannette Chaples, Geneva Brazier, Helen Neild, Mildred Townsend, Mildred Colson, Pauline Young, Carrie Colson, and Mildred Grover, who won first prize for highest sales. Comrades Williams, Creamer and Marks also did very efficient work. Dinner and supper were served the workers by Mr. and Mrs. John Ranlett.

The flower service conducted in connection with the Memorial Day program was altered from the latter day custom. Mrs. Eliza Plummer, patriotic instructor of Ruth Mayhew Tent, D.U.V. of '61-'65, taking charge of arrangements. Flowers were strewn on the water by white clad girls, in the motor boat, furnished by Arthur Post. All Patriotic Orders in the city were invited to join in this service. Those represented were G.A.R. auxiliaries, American Legion Auxiliary, Spanish War Auxiliary and Veterans of Foreign Wars.

Judge E. W. Pike is moving his law office from Woolworth block to the offices over Philip Sulides' store.

Rockland 28 Lincoln 1

In a ball game which was so one-sided as to be almost a burlesque, Coach Matheson's orange and black warriors visited a most disastrous rout upon Lincoln Academy at Community Park Tuesday afternoon. By agreement with Coach Clunie the game was mercifully called at the end of the seventh inning.

Anderson held the visitors to a couple of safe swats, while the Rockland outfit was hitting three L. A. pitchers to the far corners of the universe. In this batting spree the leaders were Chisholm, who hit safely four times out of five chances, Ellis, Billings and Duff fattened their averages with three apiece. Anderson hit a pair of lungers.

A shoestring catch by Chisholm and a one hand catch by Billings were features. The score:

Wooster A Winner

Took Butch Only Three Rounds To Put Lewiston Man Away

Butch Wooster, 183, of Rockland pinned a KO on Jack Dube, 185 of Lewiston in the third round of the scheduled eight-round main event at the Tillson avenue Potato Bowl last night. The State champion battered the Lewiston fighter from all angles, putting him on the canvas 13 times in the three rounds.

In the semi-final Ponzi Cochran of Rockland pinned a technical kayo on KO Tardiff of Lewiston in the third round. Tardiff was down twice in the third round before giving up the ghost. Both boys were warned for low punching in the second round.

Cracker Favreau of Rockland out-pointed Rene St. Hilaire of Lewiston in the four round top prelim. Young La Chance of Lewiston had too many guns for Slasher Porter of Rockland. Porter was saved by the bell in the first and second rounds. The Slasher was unable to come out for the third round. Jack O'Brien was the third man in the ring while Len Halstead held the watch.

Charley Miller of Bangor was an interested spectator at last night's affair. Charley was warm in his praises of Wooster, Favreau and Cochran. Miller will have Cochran on his card in Augusta June 10 at the City Hall. There is some talk of matching Butch Wooster and Roy Worcester of Bangor in the near future.—By Bob Russell

PARK THEATRE FRIDAY-SATURDAY

Bob Baker and Jack Kirk make it a fight to the finish in "Border Wolves," Universal's thrill-packed Western adventure-drama.

STRAND THEATRE

The low-down on higher learning is given by Gracie Allen in her new comedy with George Burns, Martha Raye and Bob Hope, "College Swing," which comes for Friday and Saturday. It is a rollicking farce showing what happens on a college campus when the school nitwit inherits the university and puts her unusual ideas of education into effect.

The result is as mad a semester as Gracie, aided by a supporting cast which includes Edward Everett Horton, Florence George, Ben Blue, Betty Grable, Jackie Coogan and John Payne can make it. This enthusiastic for "liberal education" promptly liquidates the faculty and installs her own pals in the places of the ousted professors. Hope becomes "Professor of Applied Romance," and "applies" the romance to another madcap member of the faculty, Martha Raye. Gracie makes Ben Blue head of the physical education department and assumes the coveted post of "Dean of Men" herself.

As head of the college, Gracie is ready to take in her stride not only the faculty but the board of trustees as well. When the chief of them, Edward Everett Horton, a woman-hating multi-millionaire, tries to spoil her game by taking the university out of her hands, she turns the tables on him and proves that she knows more about romance than she does about education. In a hilarious climax, she surrenders the college to him, while he surrenders his heart and his millions to her. As Gracie's love interest, Horton plays his first romantic role in many pictures.—adv.

WEST ROCKPORT

Robbins-Kellar

A pretty wedding was solemnized May 30 at the home of Mrs. M. J. Oxtan when her niece Grace L. Kellar became the wife of F. Winfield Robbins of Rockville. The ceremony was performed by Rev. H. R. Winchenbaugh, the double ring service being used.

The couple were attended by Mrs. Robbins' daughter and son-in-law Mr. and Mrs. George W. Moody.

The wedding march was played by Mrs. Joseph Andrews, the bride being given in marriage by her uncle Elmer C. St. Clair of Rockport. Three-year-old Elsie Andrews acted as flower girl bearing a basket of rose petals and strewing them in the pathway to the altar.

The house was attractively decorated with apple blossoms, lilacs, and ferns, the work of Mrs. Carrie Winchenbaugh and Mr. and Mrs. Moody. Following the ceremony the customary congratulations the bride cut the wedding cake and ice cream and cake were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Robbins were the recipients of many beautiful wedding gifts consisting of crystal glass ware, cut glass, silver, linen, money, coffee, urn, coffee table, braided rug and many other gifts.

There were 30 invited guests, among whom were Mrs. George B. Arnold and Miss Olive L. Griffith of Providence and Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Esancy of Union. Later in the afternoon Mr. and Mrs. Robbins were given a dinner party by Mr. and Mrs. George Moody at the "Life Saver" in Warren and incidentally it was the first birthday of Janice F. Moody, who had her little cake with the one candle and almost as many presents as the bride.

In the evening a reception was tendered the bride and groom by Mr. and Mrs. Herman R. Winchenbaugh at their new cottage at Spruce Head Island. Refreshments were served.

Mrs. Robbins will continue working in the office of the Confidential Loan Co in Rockland.

Chiefs Start Right

Beat Worumbos of Lisbon Falls In Thrill-Marked Game

The Vinal Haven Chiefs opened their baseball season with a thrilling 5 to 4 victory over Lisbon Falls Sunday. A large crowd turned out to see the boys battle it out, and they got their money's worth. Coombs stole the show with three hits, driving in four runs and pitching shutout ball for eight innings. The Chiefs scored twice in the opening frame when Swanson singled, White walked and Coombs singled, scoring both runners. In the seventh the home team picked up another run on two hits and a fielder's choice.

In the first half of the ninth the visitors started the fireworks and when the smoke had cleared away Lisbon Falls had chalked up four runs on four hits, two walks, an error and a passed ball. Brown relieved Coombs after two were out and two runs had scored.

The climax came in the last of the ninth when White singled, Guilford walked and then Coombs sparked a double to right, scoring White, and then Luce, the visitors' catcher, forgot to pick up the throw in; Guilford stole home with the winning run. Haskell and Gartley turned in nice running catches.

Kinney, the visitors' hurler, had plenty of speed and curves, fanning 17 of the Chiefs' batters.

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE—

Without Calomel—And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to Go

The liver should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily. If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas builds up your stomach. You get constipated. Your whole system is poisoned and you feel sour, sick and the world looks punk.

HELP KIDNEYS PASS 3 LBS. A DAY

Doctors say your kidneys contain 15 miles of tiny tubes or filters which help to purify the blood and keep you healthy. Most people pass about 3 pints a day or about 3 pounds of waste. Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning shows there may be something wrong with your kidneys or bladder.

An excess of acids or poisons in your blood, when due to functional kidney disorders, may be the cause of nagging backache, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. They give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.

Nazarene Church Notes

The pastor's subject "Witnessing Stones" was an appropriate sermon for Memorial Sunday. Two special songs were sung and a half-hour of the Sunday School period was used by Rev. J. W. Ames in delivering an Evangelistic message.

At the N.Y.P.S. Mrs. Helen Creamer was the special speaker. At the evening preaching service an inspiring message was delivered by the pastor, "The Refiner of Silver" being the subject.

Church School and Young People's Society attended the Zone Rally at Livermore Falls Monday when District Superintendent Rev. Samuel Young spoke. Rev. Galloway (Evangelist) of Ohio, spoke on "They Had Been With Jesus." There was special music at all services.

Eighteen church districts in this zone attended. The largest group Gardner with 68 present, carried home the banner. Those who went from here were Pastor and Mrs.

Ames, Nehemiah, Herbert, Guy, Carroll and Matthew Ames, Mary Ware, Mrs. Donald McEdward, Foster, Norma, Joyce and Robert McEdward, Mrs. Dwight Cummings, Dorothy Howard, Iva and Irene Howard, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Robinson, Beatrice Ashcroft, Mrs. Jesse Hilt, Mrs. Helen Creamer, Donald and Edward Creamer, Evelyn Danforth, Wesley Best, Bertha and "Junior" Moody and Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Moody.

Saturday at 2 p.m. there will be a rehearsal of the children at the Church. Services next Sunday: Morning worship at 10 o'clock; church school, 11:15; Young People's, 5:30; prayer, 6:30; and the evening preaching service at 7. The monthly meeting of the church board will follow the prayer service tonight.

A delicious sandwich consists of the following mixture spread between thin brown bread: one cup of grated cheese, mixed with a tablespoon of milk, one teaspoon of anchovy paste and a dash of paprika.

Misses Anna and Florence Fessenden of Newtonville, Mass., with two friends were at the Fessenden home here over the holiday.

The Baptist Circle is invited to picnic supper next Tuesday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Butler in Warren. Those not solicited will please take sweets, and all are asked to take their dishes.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Pease are the parents of a son born May 24. The baby weighed 10 pounds, and has been named Arnold Sherman.

The Pythian Knights and Sisters will enjoy a social get-together next Monday evening at 7:30 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lineken. A millinery opening is announced as a feature of the entertainment, and each member is asked to bring a hat and its trimmings. Mrs. Hazel Mitchell Young and Mrs. Katherine Crawford are on the committee.

Mrs. Charles Winchenbach went Sunday to Union where she was the guest of her brother, Wilson Merriam, returning home Wednesday.

Gerald Creamer of this town was also chosen a member of the Knox County Fish and Game Association at the Friday evening meeting at Tenant's Harbor.

Mrs. Eben Alden arrived from Florida Saturday and will be at her home here for the summer. She was accompanied by her niece, Mrs. M. A. Hart, and Miss Lucy Skinner.

Mrs. Homer Harding of Somerville, Mass., was the weekend guest of Mrs. Russell Davis. Mrs. Harding is now at her summer home in Tenant's Harbor.

This issue contains the program of the recital to be given by the pupils of Mrs. Ruth E. Sanborn in the Universalist Church vestry in Rockland tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock. All who heard with pleasure the Thomaston glee club and the harmonica band this spring will be interested to know they have a part in the recital, 23 girls in the glee club, and 18 boys and girls in the band. The entire program is attractive, including also several piano numbers and a playlet "Jean's Dream" to be presented by 14 Junior Glee Club girls from Union and written by their counselor, Mrs. Robert McKinley.

Prisoner Returned

Henry Hule, 31, inmate of the State Prison who escaped from a road crew at Union Sept. 16, 1927, seven months after he had been committed to the institution to serve two to four years for jail-breaking in Franklin County was returned to prison last night by Bernard Jacobs, federal probation officer in Manchester, N. H.

Hule had been placed on probation in New Hampshire on the charge of violating the tariff act, and when officials discovered that he was a fugitive from Maine, he was brought here and turned over to Warden John H. Welch.—Press Herald.

With the Extension Agents — And The — Knox-Lincoln Farm Bureau

Agriculture

John Carroll of Washington has seeded down two acres to alfalfa this year. He has several acres that are producing two good crops each year.

The farmers in Knox and Lincoln counties have applied for nearly 50 tons of superphosphate from the Searsport plant in connection with the government arrangement of having the pay taken from their checks next fall.

In this month's "Milk Pail" there were 29 cows from nine herds in the county which had produced more than 300 pounds butterfat during their lactation period. The herds were Round Top Farms, Damariscotta, 13; D. E. Andrews, Jefferson (Wauv Farms) 5; H. A. Hawes, Union; H. W. Sproul, North Nobleboro, 3 each; W. S. Bryant, Damariscotta Mills and B. H. Nichols, Hope, 2 each; and Spear Farm, North Nobleboro, 1.

This past week the Barred Rock pen of Foster Jameson of Waldoboro led the Maine Egg laying contest with 73 eggs which scored 74 points.

Stacy Miller of the Extension Service, Orono, who has charge of the farm and poultry account work in the state will be with County Agent Wentworth, next week calling on co-operators.

With the Homes

Good Nutrition for the Family will be the subject of agent meetings this week and next in the following communities:

June 2, Tenant's Harbor at Mrs. Margaret Reid's. Mrs. Reid and Mrs. Allen Conary are on the dinner committee.

June 3, Bristol at the church vestry with Mrs. Eva Tibbets and Mrs. Florence Prentice serving the square meal for health.

June 8, South Thomaston at the Grange hall. Mrs. Annie Dennison and Mrs. Rachael Long will serve the dinner.

Clarence A. Day, Extension News Specialist, and John Richardson, advertising manager of The Courier-Gazette, will speak June 4 at 2 p. m. on news writing at the Farm Bureau Hall in Rockland. All secretaries and members of farm bureau groups and others interested are invited to attend.

The agent will conduct a meeting on Household Buying, June 7, in Hope at the Grange hall. Mrs. C. A. Dunton and Mrs. Kenneth Mank will serve the square meal for health.

4-H Club Notes

The boys' and girls' 4-H clubs of North Haven marched in the Memorial Day parade at North Haven which started at 10 in front of Library Hall. The boys carried their club banner on which was written their name—"Jolly Islanders" in large letters. Victor Beverage, a member of the Jolly Islanders' club led the parade carrying the United States flag. A. W. Beverage, Sr., and Alton Calderwood are leader and assistant of the Jolly Islanders' club. The girls' 4-H club on the island is called "Mas'ot Club" and is led by Mrs. Susie Wooster and Mrs. Ethel Wooster.

The Hill Top Juniors of Hope learned about breakfast at their recent meeting. Each club member set a breakfast cover and served. The following menu was prepared and served: oranges, rolled oats, bacon and eggs, toast, and cocoa.

The Jefferson Cheerio 4-H club members and leaders, Mrs. Muriel Lermond and Mrs. Esther Hallowell made a May basket at their last meeting and filled it with gifts brought by each one to take to the Home for Aged People. This club is remembering the Heart "H" of our 4-H's which stand for "Head, Heart, Hand, and Health."

The Orr's Corner Bean Club is planning again this summer for ice cream sales. The boys make and freeze several gallons of ice cream and sell to raise money for their club.

Seven clubs have already met all possible requirements to date for their seal of achievement which means that their program of work has been sent to the club agent, that they have held a public demonstration, that they have had a judging contest, and that they have held at least 12 meetings. Seven more clubs have to hold only one or two more meetings to be on this list. Clubs which have already met the requirements to date are: Boothbay Gainers 4-H, Mrs. Melie Goodale, leader; Jolly Trollers of George's River road, Esther Harjula, leader; Alford Lake 4-H of Hope, Annie Rhodes, leader; Quintuplet of Pleasantville, Mrs. Bertha Meservey, leader; Singing, Sewing of West Rockport, Mrs. Henry Keller, leader; Sheepscot 4-H, Mrs. Ruth Carney, leader; and Fox Islanders of Vinal Haven, Mrs. A. A. Peterson, leader.

TENANT'S HARBOR

Reception to Former Pastor

Rev. Perley E. Miller was tendered a reception in the vestry May 24 on his 80th birthday when the title of "pastor emeritus" was conferred upon him. Those taking part in the service were: Rev. Newell J. Smith, deacon David Sivewright, and Miss Harriet Long all of whom paid the former beloved pastor the highest tribute conveying the sentiments of the community, young and old, as well as members of the church.

Rev. Mr. Miller responded in his usual sincere and impressive manner; expressing gratitude for the honor paid him, and telling of his love now as always for the people of this community. Another impressive tribute in verse and prose was paid Rev. Miller in a beautiful letter received from Robert Baid Sr. and family, in observance of his 80th birthday.

Rev. Mr. Miller's work in this town began when he was appointed missionary evangelist for the Lincoln Baptist Association and his first revival was in the church at Wiley's Corner where he was later ordained. Fourteen years from that time he came to this town, as pastor of the Seaside Baptist Church, and remained here six years, fol-

"YOU SHOULD SEE WHAT I SAW WHERE CAMELS ARE MADE" BY

Eddie Cantor

AMERICA'S LAUGH KING, Eddie Cantor, has his serious moments too. His uproarious "Cantor's Camel Caravan" broadcasts (every Monday night—Columbia Network) command respect because of his sincerity in his work. And Eddie's truly sincere in his self-termed job of "Camel Radio Salesman." Says salesman Cantor, "Everything isn't too much to know about a cigarette like Camel." Eddie took a trip to Winston-Salem, home of Camel cigarettes. Here is what he saw—by insurance. When you reach retirement under the Reynolds plan, the company sends you a check each month for the rest of your life. It's certainly great to be a Camel worker! COSTLIER TOBACCOS? Has Camel got costlier tobaccos? Listen—I'm looking at it, folks, in the picture above. And there's a hundred million dollars' worth of it right here at Winston-Salem. That tobacco looks so g-o-o-d, smells so g-o-o-d. If you're smoking a Camel, you're smoking some of those finer, costlier tobaccos right now. How do they keep this tobacco 'just right,' the way you like it? They make the workroom 'weather' themselves with a wonderful air-conditioning plant. And, besides, they actually wash the air every few minutes. Do the Camel folks like to work in that place! In the last pic-

"HELLO EVERYBODY! Here I am in Camel town. Am I impressed! Everybody looks so happy—so enthusiastic! You'd think each one of the 13,000 Reynolds workers owned the plant. And say, thousands of them are owners—they've got Camel stock! And they really get fun out of making Camels. Maybe that's a reason people get so much fun out of smoking Camels. Wouldn't you like to work here? Nobody's been laid off by Camels in 12 years. When that old whistle blows, all the officials in this place are right on the job too. And they have only one job—making

Camels so good that more people smoke them than any other cigarette. Yes—that's everybody's job at Camels. Imagine a place like this Camel plant. They had social security here years ago. When you're sick, you get a nice healthy check each week. If you die, your family is protected

Have a Camel! See for yourself why there's more real pleasure—more out-and-out enjoyment—in Camel's matchless blend of finer, more expensive tobaccos—Turkish and Domestic.

See why tobacco planters, men who grow and know tobacco, make Camel their cigarette. You'll say, as millions of smokers do, "Camels agree with me." Camel is America's largest-selling cigarette!

ENDICOTT-JOHNSON

lowed by a pastorate at Franklin where he also preached six years.

Upon retirement from the ministry, Rev. and Mrs. Miller returned to this community to make this their permanent residence. Soon after, Rev. Mr. Miller was asked to fill in until such time as another pastor was secured to which he cheerfully responded, agreeing to do the best he could under the circumstances, being in declining years, and failing health. However, Rev. Mr. Miller occupied the pulpit here again for 19 months, and preached with his usual vigor and sincerity, the climax of his ministry attaining its height, when on his 80th birthday he was made "pastor emeritus" of the Seaside Baptist Church.

A bouquet of carnations was presented to him by Charlene Allen and Elaine Allen, great granddaughters of the late Deacon Henry F. Kallio, one of Rev. Mr. Miller's closest friends. Rev. Mr. Miller expressed a wish to the girls that they too might live to enjoy their 80th birthday.

A birthday cake and other refreshments were served by the Ladies Sewing Circle, and a musical program was presented for entertainment, combined of a vocal duet, saxophone solo, and chorus singing. A pleasant feature was the presence of Rev. Mr. Miller's daughters, Mrs. Mamie Carroll of Rockport, and Mrs. Leola Waldron and Mr. Waldron of Camden; two granddaughters, Mrs. Wilma Rhodes of Rockport, and Miss Pearl Waldron of Camden, a sister, Mrs. Abbie Richardson of Rockland and a niece, Mrs. Evelyn McKusick of Rockland. A family party had previously been enjoyed through the day at Rev. Mr. Miller's home and the Sunday before another daughter, Mrs. Nellie White and Mr. White accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Wentworth all of Morrill visited Rev. and Mrs. Miller in observance of his birthday anniversary. Rev. Mr. Miller was also the recipient of several birthday cakes and nearly 200 greetings.

Rev. Mr. Miller's remarks laid stress on the need of co-operation between pastor and people of any church to which he attributed the success of his work in his various pastorates, and he also spoke feelingly of his prayerful interest in behalf of this church and the community at large expressing his delight in being able to make this town his permanent home. The town people were equally pleased to welcome "home" their former pastor who won a place in the hearts of those with whom he came in contact because of his optimistic disposition, genial handclasp and his friendliness to all.

Happy is the man who can interpret friendship in terms of God. Thrice happy is he to be a friend of God. Rev. Mr. Miller has a mind through which Christ thinks, a heart through which Christ loves, a voice through which Christ speaks, and a hand through which Christ helps, all of which proves that he is truly a Christian—a noble example for all.
